

Outdoor Scavenger Hunt

NC State Capitol

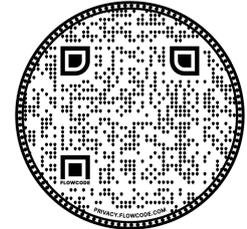

Each anthemion crown marks a stop on the scavenger hunt. Once you solve the hint and find the location, scan the QR code to learn more about the stop. Use the map to begin the scavenger hunt.

1

The Capitol is not a king or queen, but still wears this.

2

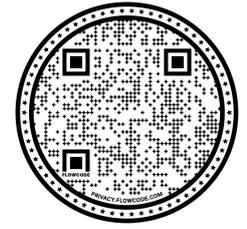

North Carolina gave the country these national leaders.

3

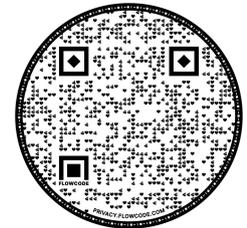

This marker recognizes the Capitol as historically important.

4

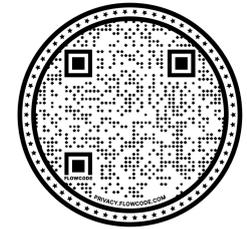

This stone might be hard to find - it's a part of the building!

5

This monument shows three soldiers.

6

The only woman on the Capitol grounds holds her hands above her head.

7

This man carries a book - he was an educator!

8

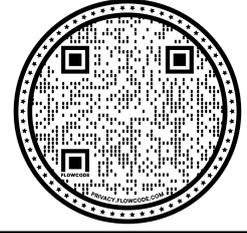

These three stones almost look like gravestones, but they are tools to help measure something very important.

9

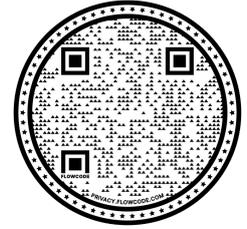

These two men served in the highest elected office in North Carolina.

10

This president was NOT from North Carolina.

11

On the base of this statue, you'll see a symbol for something often found in water.

12

Probably the only stop on this list that has a distinct smell! Hint: it's also one of our official state symbols.
